BELLMORE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Group Study Room Policy

The Bellmore Memorial Library provides a Group Study Room for patrons’ use. This room is made available to patrons who need a place to concentrate, as well as collaborate. The Group Study Room can accommodate up to four individuals at one time.

No reservation will be taken for the Group Study Room. The room is available on a first come, first served basis. A time limit of two hours will be placed on the room when other groups are waiting.

The purpose of the Group Study Room is not for individual tutoring; however, tutors or individuals may use the room if no group is waiting. Priority will be given to group study.

The room must be vacated 15 minutes prior to the Library’s closing time.

While studying in any of the Library’s rooms the following rules shall apply:
- Shoes must be worn at all times and no bare feet are allowed.
- No one may put their feet up on the furniture.
- Enclosed drink containers and light snacks are allowed.
- Patrons are expected to leave the rooms as they find them.

ADOPTED: September 19, 2017